

The Art of Photography?

name: _____

per.: _____ score: _____/30

Reading pp. 35-43 in Focus on Photography.

Answer the questions below.

1. The Principles of design are more _____ than the elements of art. (1pt)
2. Pattern is achieved by the _____ of any of the elements of art. (1pt)
3. Balance is the appearance of _____ within a composition. (1pt)
4. _____ is best described as a mirror-image composition. (1pt)
5. _____ still looks balanced, but objects are not centered in the frame. (1pt)
6. One way of making Asymmetrical balance work in your photograph is by using the _____. (1pt)
7. When using the _____, I divide my picture space into equal thirds and objects that appear on the horizontal and vertical lines tend to look most pleasing. (1pt)
8. _____ is a circular and dynamic style of composition. (1pt)
9. Too much unity results in _____ (1pt)
10. Too much variety creates _____ (1pt)
11. In a photograph, movement is _____ or _____ motion. (2pts)
12. _____ control how much time and movement you capture. (1pt)
13. Movement can also refer to a _____ that travels through a picture. (1pt)

14. Rhythm is created by the _____ of art elements like color, value, shape, and line. (1pts)
15. What your _____ is, is one of the most important decisions when making a photograph. (1pt)
16. Emphasis refers to _____ (giving some objects greater visual importance) and _____ (reducing the visual importance). (2pts)
17. Proportion is the _____ between the _____ of objects or components in an image. (2pts)
18. Pictorialism was one of the first photography art movements from _____ to _____. (1pt)
19. Pictorialist photographs were made with _____ lenses that reduced details, and handmade prints that resembled drawings. (1pt)
20. Straight photography came about as a _____ to _____. (2pts)
21. The _____ were convinced that photography itself was art and didn't need to look like paintings. (1pt)
22. The most influential group of Straight Photographers included Which 4 photographers:

_____ and was named _____. (5pts)