

A Day in A Life

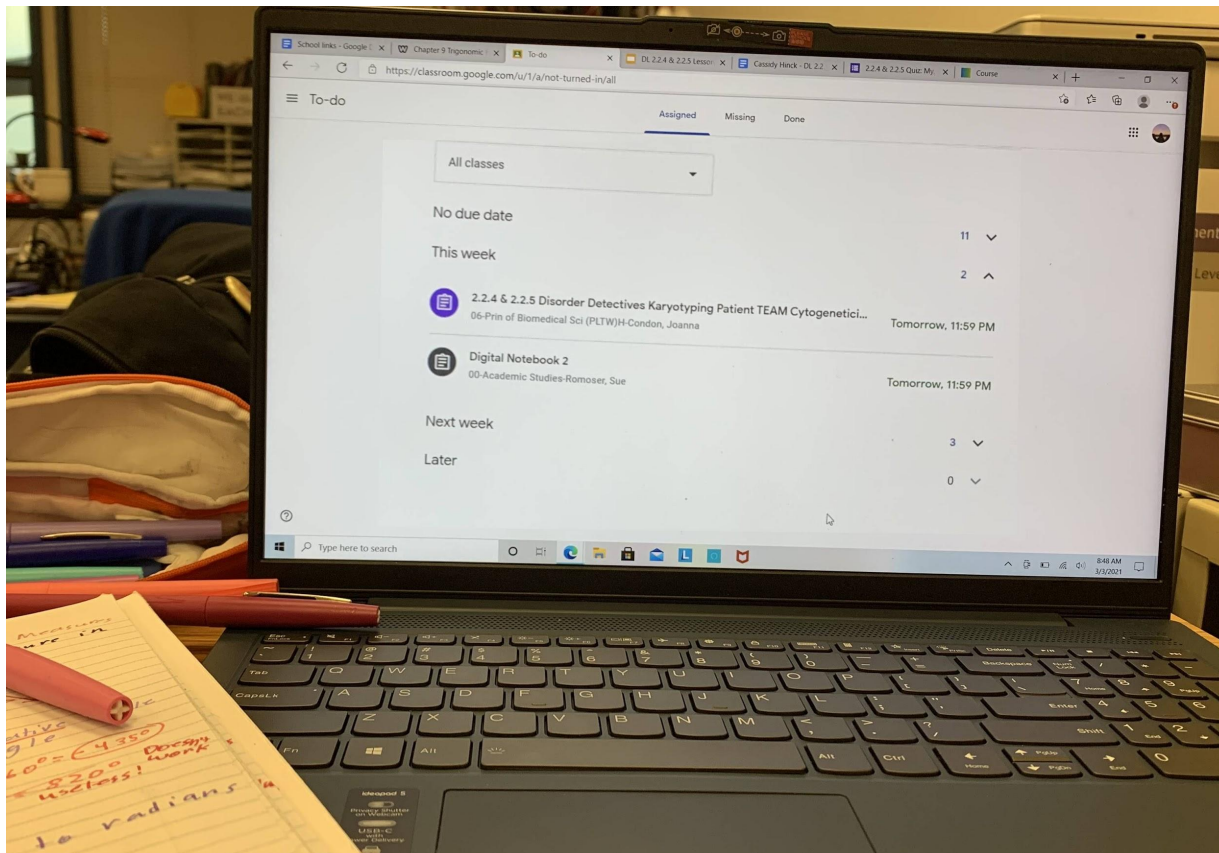

By: Cassidy Hinck

Starting the day with the most important meal

Driving to my mom's school, to start the school day

Have a load of work to get done today.

Snack time, something that helps through the day

Walks around the school to get some fresh air

Going to the store to get some supplies for the week