

Double Exposure

This composition will be strictly your creation.

You will take the landscape shot and the portrait shot, then you will combine the two per the tutorial on the class website.

There should be some meaning in this image.

You need to answer:

1. Why is it important to combine these two images?
2. What meaning is signified by the use of these two images?
3. What do you like about your image?
4. What could you have done better?
5. Was this process easy or hard, why?

You need to title your composition.
