Bike's eye view

By: Hash Khalil

Nothing like a sunrise to get the legs working

After a quick early morning ride, we have our large midday ride

It's like the bike has a mind of its own...

After a long ride, there is nothing like a good rest under the sunset.
(Dust inside my camera)

On the way home, feel like the paparazzi is watching me

The paparazzi follows me to the nightclub for a bike off!

New bike coming soon...
